INFO EL ROMPIDO

Huelva, Spain

2015 - 2016

El Rompido

is a small town

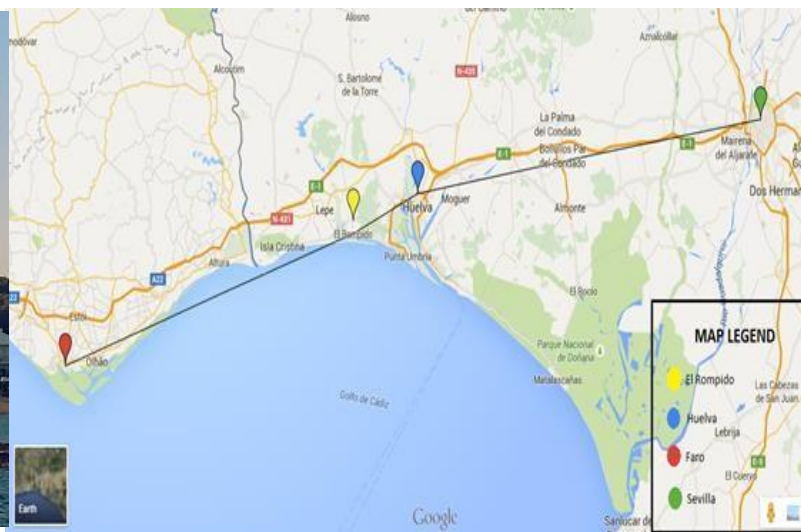

where you can feel the atmosphere of the Spanish way of life and where you can find vestiges of ancient fishery tradition.

El Rompido is located near to the Paraje Natural Marismas del Río Piedras (Natural Park and the Piedras river) and Flecha de El Rompido what allows you to be in contact with nature. Due to it, in El Rompido there are 14 km of virgin beaches. Because of its features, a lot of tourists go there each year. For more activities - you can do some watersports, ride a horse, play golf, cruise by ship, or cycling along the coast.

How to arrive?

El Rompido is situated 94 km from the airport of Faro (Portugal) and 99 km from Sevilla.

We recommend you the first option although you have the another one, too. But you have to go to the train station in Huelva for the transfer:

1. Faro airport

Faro to El Rompido. Hotel El Fuerte in El Rompido provides the service of transport from/to airport of Faro free, please inform about it in the hotel.

The other option is to take the public bus from the airport to the bus station and then the bus to the Huelva, which costs around 16 €. Once you will be in Huelva you have to take the bus to El Rompido (the price is around 2,50 €).

2. Seville airport - Huelva train station

Hotel El Fuerte in El Rompido provides the service of transfer from/to train station of Huelva free.

You can go from the Seville airport to Santa Justa train station in Seville by bus (The urban bus EA connects the airport with the train Station for 4€) or by taxi (about 30€). The bus stop of bus EA: Santa Justa Station. Schedule: 10:00h, 17:00h y 20:50h. Online purchase: www.renfe.com. Train to Huelva (12,50€). Once you will be in Huelva you have to take the bus to El Rompido (the price is around 2,50 €).

Huelva city:

Huelva is one of the less famous of the Andalusian capitals but that is unfair. This small city in the South-West of Spain is located just 90 km from Seville - the capital of flamenco, and at 100 km from Faro, Portugal. This city is famous for its fresh fish and seafood as well as for its delicious strawberries and the most beautiful coast of Spain. Here you can feel the real atmosphere of the legendary Andalusia and enjoy the sun that shines more than 280 days per year. Buses will take you to the most interesting places in the region - mountains, lakes, caves, traditional Spanish villages or natural parks.

From El Rompido, you can go by bus or by taxi in 20 minutes.

Welcome to Spain!
